

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW, San Francisco, CA

J.D. Candidate, May 2012

Honors: Executive Editor, International and Comparative Law Review
Best Brief, Honorable Mention, Moot Court Spring 2010

Activities: Teaching Assistant, Constitutional Law I, Spring 2011
Student Advocate, General Assistance Advocacy Project

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY, Princeton, NJ

B.A. Intellectual & Cultural History, minors: Neuroscience and French, cum laude, June 2008

GPA: 3.63 departmental; 3.34 overall

Thesis: Social Colonization: The impact of French education and welfare systems in Algeria on the course of the Algerian War for Independence, 1940-1962.

Honors: Stone Prize from the Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies
-Grant to conduct thesis research at the French National Archives
Norman D. Kurtz '58 Prize for Innovation in Engineering Education

Activities: Emergency Medical Technician (EMT-B) with West Windsor First Aid Squad
Project Manager, Engineers Without Borders
-Built siphon irrigation system in Arsi Negelle, Ethiopia
-Co-wrote successful grant, Princeton Institute for International & Regional Studies
Staff writer for The Daily Princetonian, News Department

EXPERIENCE

ALAMEDA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT, Oakland, CA

Intern in the Pro Se Department, Summer 2010

Interviewed pro per litigants to gather facts relevant to their family law, unlawful detainer, or general civil cases. Provided litigants with requisite legal information and worked with them to develop negotiation or mediation plans, or to write their motions. Observed family law hearings in two departments and wrote the court's orders after hearing.

INTERNATIONAL RESCUE COMMITTEE, Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of Congo

Princeton Fellowship, Information and Communication Officer, August 2008 – May 2009

Researched, drafted, and presented program reports to DRC government departments, non-governmental organizations, international donors, and the general public. Produced and translated internal and external communication materials, including those to facilitate coordination with other agencies working in gender-based violence prevention, healthcare, and democracy programming.

ARTHUR LIMAN PUBLIC INTEREST LAW FELLOW, Berkeley, CA

Researcher for Boalt Hall's Thelton E. Henderson Center for Social Justice, Summer 2008

Independently initiated a research project with Center Director, Professor Frampton, for Boalt's Scholar Advocates program: wrote 45-page research paper entitled Broader Outlook Law: Social and Biological Sciences Support the Elimination of the Proof of Intent Requirement in Discrimination Law. Contributed to Center's ongoing research on effects of CA Proposition 209 and a Restorative Justice program at an Oakland public middle school.